ABOUT ME

John Cincola

My name is John Cincola. I am a full-time Professional Pickleball Player, Content Creator, and Pickleball Coach.

Professional accomplishments include 20+ Career Pro Medals with the most recent being a Pro Doubles Gold at APP Chicago. I'm also a current member of the New Jersey 5's MLP team and have recently signed a contract to be committed to MLP/PPA from 2024-2026

In July 2022 I started an instructional YouTube channel called John Cincola Pickleball. I currently have almost 40K subscribers in roughly a year and a half on the platform. I focus on quality content and have more subscribers per upload than any other channel in the Pickleball space.

My focus for 2024 is to continue to compete professionally at a high level on the PPA and MLP tour. I will also be producing high-quality content and growing my YouTube following to over 100K subscribers, while connecting those subscribers with quality brands that can improve their experience in Pickleball.

OUR SERVICES

Clothing Sponsorship

Your logo will be placed prominently in your selected positions. I wear my clothing in all YouTube videos (40-50 new uploads per year, which will live on my channel in perpetuity), as well as at professional tournaments (20+ per year) which receive broad national coverage on their own).

Video Sponsorship

Feature your brand prominently to an average of 50,000 + Pickleball specific viewers (per video) in one or multiple of my YouTube videos.

Other Opportunities

I welcome creative ideas and opportunities to help connect your brand with my videos, social media following and interactions on the pro tour.

Please note that paddle, shoe, and clothing contracts will be negotiated outside of these Pricing guidelines
