MIGUEL ALDA

ELITE PICKLEBALL ATHLETE

Miguel Alda, a former Division 1 tennis player at Columbia University, transitioned to professional pickleball in 2023, quickly breaking into the Top 60 in singles and Top 80 in PPA rankings.

He has established himself as a strong competitor on tour with multiple rounds of 16 appearances in PPA and a 5th-place finish at APP Dallas 2023 (singles). His precision and creativity on the court have earned him the nickname "Lob God."

Beyond competition, Miguel is committed to growing the sport, mentoring new players, and hosting clinics to expand the pickleball community.
