About

Naveen Beasley, a former Division 1 Tennis player for Cal Poly SLO, has quickly emerged as a standout in professional pickleball since 2023. With career-high rankings of 23 in PPA singles, 20 in APP singles, and top 50 in doubles, Naveen is known for his ability to “kill” tournament seeds, having scored multiple victories over top-10 opponents.

Naveen brings over 12 years of proven sales leadership, offering a wealth of experience and a history of success in high-stakes, competitive industries. As a Director of Sales and Regional Sales Manager, he has built and led dynamic teams, cultivated lasting relationships, and driven revenue growth with some of the world’s most recognized brands, including Boeing, Tesla, Medtronic, Apple, Ford Motors, Johnson & Johnson, and Caterpillar.

Naveen understands the nuances of corporate strategy, brand alignment, and the importance of long-term partnerships, allowing him to connect with sponsors and partners in a way that aligns with their objectives and drives mutual success.

In addition to his competitive career, Naveen is the Pickleball Director at East Side Paddle Club in Austin, TX, where he shares his passion for the sport with the community. He also trained in Barcelona, becoming fluent in Spanish, and is a talented musician, playing guitar, drums, and piano. His diverse interests and expertise in both sports and business make him a well-rounded professional ready to drive meaningful collaborations.
