

MAX FREEMAN

PROFESSIONAL PICKLEBALL
PLAYER

@maxfreeman.pb

ABOUT MAX

Max is a former captain and #1 doubles player for the Vanderbilt University men's tennis team, where he was also introduced to pickleball by teammate and childhood friend James Ignatowich. After graduating with a Masters degree in marketing in 2022, Max moved home to Boston to work in business consulting for 18 months. In January 2024, Max moved to Florida where his pickleball journey began. He has played and coached full time with the Ignatowich team since, having played and taught all over the world in the last year, including Mumbai, Tokyo, Honolulu and New York.

Career Highlights:

- Signed with the PPA in March 2025
- #10 draft pick in 2025 MLP Draft to the Chicago Slice
- Doubles wins over Tyson McGuffin and Federico Staksrud. Singles wins over Connor Garnett and Jack Sock
- 2025 APP and PPA singles semifinalist
- PPA men's doubles quarterfinalist 2024 Virginia Beach
- 2 time PPA mixed doubles quarterfinalist 2024
- First round draft pick for World Pickleball League 2025, led team to semi-finals
- 6.3 doubles and singles DUPR

LETS PARTNER TOGETHER!

godfatherpickleball.com
david@godfatherpickleball.com

VISIBILITY ACROSS PLATFORMS SUCH AS
THE TENNIS CHANNEL, ESPN, AMAZON, AND FREEVEE.